ROCK CO. SHORTHORN TESTS

Rock county milking Shorthorn breeders in the cow testing association are cutting a record for their good producers in the record of merit class. There are more records of merit Shorthorns in Rock county than the rest of the state combined at the present time and the breeders are out to increase this record.

The testing report by Clayton Fisher for March shows that Charabell 2nd, daughter of the 1922 Wisconsin grand champion, was high cow with 15.5 pounds of butter-fat, an average of 2.11 pounds per day. The Kye Brothers' cow hit 6.6 pounds and averaged 1.35 pounds a day. Ready and persistent in milk flow is evident from not only the Rock county records, but also a test milked just completed on Lady Jane, owned by P. C. Connor, East Troy. This record for Shorthorns was more than 40 pounds of fat for eight months out of the year and completed the yearly record with 12,704 pounds of milk and 524.5 pounds of fat.

Kye's 2nd, a two-year-old, in the Traynor herd, has made a creditable record of 114.9 pounds of fat in 90 days. There were 26 cows in the C. T. A. that tested more than 40 pounds. The report follows:

4 MENTIONED FOR COUNTY CHAIRMAN

Richardson, Doty, Paulson and Osgard Are Possibilities.

Members of the Rock county board are making overtures on the office of chairman. The successor to W. W. Dalton, Clinton supervisor, will be named at the special meeting here, April 17.

Under the unwritten rule of the board, the office is open to go to the cities, it being a practice each term to switch from a township or village supervisor to a city representative. There are 24 supervisors in the towns and villages and 22 in the cities.

The resignation of C. H. Christensen, Beloit, puts a new angle to the chairmanship problem. Supervisor Christensen was popular on the board, an efficient member and qualified for the gavel job.

The names being mentioned at the present time are: George Doty, Edgerton; Martin Paulson, Evansville; and M. P. Richardson, Janesville. C. O. Osgard, Plymouth township, has considerable following. This supervisor having been vice chairman in the past time, he is a familiar figure in the board. Supervisor Richardson is certain to have considerable following but his stand on the assessment value issues has not been a popular one in the Beloit district. However, it is generally agreed Richardson is thoroughly qualified for handling the chairmanship.

Route 20 probably will be the next interesting feature of the coming session. Both the old route faction and Footville followers are lined up to press their claims. In the event the issue becomes too bitter and no decision or compromise reached, there is talk of switching to pave the route east and again there will be a violent protest because of railroad crossings.

Jefferson Day Dinner Here Is County Affair

All cities and villages of Rock county and several of the townships are expected to be represented at the Thomas Jefferson birthday banquet at the Grand hotel at 8:30 p. m. Thursday, according to George G. Sutherland, Janesville, one of the 13 democrats sponsoring the affair. While reservations have not come in as rapidly as expected, many probably will order places between now and 10 a. m. Thursday, so that 100 or more will be in attendance.

The banquet is being sponsored by leading democrats of the county, but it is by no means limited to those of that party. Among the first to get in reservations were prominent republicans, and it promises to be an audience representative of all parties. The Thomas M. Kearney, Beloit, will address. Mr. Kearney is a well

Book Swindlers Fail to Return Cash to Victims

J. H. Garrison and Floyd Jones, Milwaukee youths who were given $2 by Judge H. L. Maxfield toward their carfare home following their arrest here March 14, have not yet returned that money, neither have they settled with the women they fleeced on magazine subscriptions, so far as can be learned. The two said they were Marquette university students, "down and out" because of illness and other causes and were out to raise a little money so they could continue school.

When arraigned in municipal court here they admitted everything, but promised to make their debts good if given opportunity to return to Milwaukee.

They claimed to have $50 due from the company for which they were working but with nearly a month having elapsed they have not sent back any of that $50 to the police, nor the court to pay out the women fleeced by the "41 down payment" scheme, as they had agreed to do.

NOW'S BEST TIME TO HAMMER FLIES, SAY HEALTH HEADS

Spring must be here for the Rev. Henry Willmann brought to the health department office recently a pussywillow and a musca domestica, (house fly in Webster's). This musca domestica was found basking in the sunlight and was trapped by the odor of honey in a bottle. Then a ventilated cup was put over the bottle and it was brought to the health office.

The Rev. Mr. Willmann says this fly, whose common name is a fly, might be the great-grand-dad of millions of flies if left to roam at large.

"We were glad to have our attention called to the fact that flies were making their appearance in the city at their early date," say health department officials. "It means that now is the time for the most effective 'Swat-the-Flies' campaign to begin. All flies killed at this time means many eliminated later in the summer. At this season the fly finds the horse manure piles with the heat they contain to be very favorable to lay their eggs. Flies should, therefore, be removed now and at least once a week for the remainder of the warm season. Better preventive for an increase in the fly world would be all persons owning horses to construct closed bins for this manure and then empty these bins as often as necessary. This would eliminate the many flies and would do a great deal to lessen the number of flies of the season."

Jefferson Women Stage Political House Cleaning

Editor Gazette:

Jefferson Women Begin Early! With spring comes housecleaning, the instinct true to woman. As they began on April 3 by going to the polls and increased the poll to the largest in the history of Jefferson and re-elected chief of police and city clerk by a large majority. These candidates were supported by the W. C. T. U.

This defeat of the wets says one thing—Jefferson wants law enforcement. As the next step, on April 4 the W. C. T. U. presented a petition to "mayor and common council asking that licenses of soft drink establishments violating subsection 30 of section 1542, revised statutes, regarding window, bar and door ordinance of the Severson act, be revoked. Also they asked that the license of Bender's dance hall and of Langer's pool hall be revoked.

Jefferson is going dry. Places now harboring law violators, by due process of law are re-occupied by law abiding American citizens.

disappointed home-owners tell you to buy ARCOLA NOW

THE BUILDING BOOM started in 1921. That Fall, 5,000 home-owners who had ordered radiator warmth with ARCOLA were disappointed.

Why? Because they waited until Fall to place their orders.

This year three times as many homes are being built as in 1921. Yet no more ARCOLAS can be produced this year than in 1921 because our factories are already over-taxed with orders for larger IDEAL Boilers.

ARCOLA is radiator and boiler in one—different from any others. It is connected with a genuine American Radiator in each room. Warm bed-rooms! Breakfast in a warm dining room! Protection for the children from colds and gripple!

The 5,000 home-owners who were disappointed in 1921 are 5,000 reasons why you should let your Heating Contractor give you an estimate now.

SIX LEAGUE VOTES PLAN EXPLAINED

Equalized in Council, Is Plea of Proponents in America.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

Washington—A plan to equalize the six votes to America's one in choosing judges for the world court was unnecessarily disturbed.

The government feels the United States is sufficiently protected against any attack in voting and the following explanation is given on the subject in a letter from the State Department to the Senate.

SCHOOL NEWSPAPER TO MAKE DEBUT AT J. H. S., THURSDAY

First issue of a high school newspaper, as yet unnamed, will appear Thursday noon, when 500 copies will be distributed. At Junior and senior school assemblies, Monday morning, the plans of those on the staff were explained, and a contest for a name started. The paper is an outgrowth of the classes in journalism taught by Mrs. Florence Johnson, and in the future the class will work on the newspaper.

The first part of a movement at the school that, it is probable, will result in the publication of a paper semi-weekly or oftener, a monthly journal, and a yearly Phoenix. Any plan less than this should shame a school of the size of the Janesville high school, said W. W. Brown, told assemblies, Monday.

Heading the paper is editor-in-chief is Roland Kuehn, while others on the staff, most of them members of the journalism class, are: Herbert Helms, news editor; Dorothy Randall, literary editor; Leon Dodge, head of athletics; Robert Coen, society editor; Le Roy Dickson, sports editor; Charles Campbell, business editor; Leon Battig, head of the faculty in charge of finances; John Taylor, advertising; Lewis H. Johnson, circulation; and J. L. Jackson, of the faculty generally in charge of advertising and circulation.

A free subscription to the end of the year will be awarded the student who hands in the largest number of papers, this name to be a permanent one for year to come. Names were to be in by Tuesday noon.

The sheet, which will make its appearance on Thursdays, will be of the size and general make-up of the Beloit college paper, "The Round Table." It will be printed in the city until the printing press is installed in the high school this coming summer, after which the low cost of printing will allow a low subscription rate. Room 14, in the basement, will be used as general offices. Reports will be given "beats" to cover.

He has dramatized a number of stories, two of which were presented this winter at the Catholic club, and directed the "Passion Play" given last year by the Madison club.

RECONSIDERATION OF RAIL EDICT DENIED
Washington—Petitions asking for reconsideration of the recent ruling requiring railroads to sell inter-changeable mileage books at reduced rates were denied Tuesday by the Interstate Commerce commission.

May Modification
If the Harding administration should succeed in convincing the American people that the six to one argument is pointless, the proposal of the covenant of the league in waging their battle, too. Already the league itself has practically gone on record in favor of modifying article 10 so that it will conform to the original reservation proposed in the American senate by Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts. George Wharton Pepper, United States senator from Pennsylvania, republican, and a close friend of President Harding, is openly in favor of rewriting the covenant to match up with the Lodge reservation, and altogether the battle over the language of the covenant may be said to be revived so far as political Washington is concerned. Mr. Pepper indicates that he would divorce the league of nations from any of the enforcement clauses of the Versailles treaty, a view unopposed by Secretary Hoover and expressed since he became a member of the Harding cabinet. The Pennsylvania senator declares that he would give the council the power to recommend action to the respective governments but not to force.

There always has been a difference of opinion as to whether the council had any powers of recommendation at any time but the movement to make that point explicit will not be fought by the original league of nations democrats and it is a coalition of these democrats and the pro-league republicans who can be expected to furnish the necessary two-thirds in the senate to ratify the protocol providing for American-adhesion to the international court of justice.

There is some talk that the democrats will endeavor to force the covenant to the fore again as a trading point in the senate, arguing that the republicans should support a modified covenant if they want the league of nations. At this stage of the proceedings this is purely speculative, for the democrats themselves have not really discussed the league of nations in any party conference since the campaign of 1920, and the probabilities are that they will go along with the republicans on the world court proposal irrespective of whether there is an reciprocal support for a revised league or association of nations.

ACTION PROBABLE ON WAR MEMORIAL

Smaller Committee to Push Matter—All Societies Favor Proposal.

At a meeting of 30 or more members of the soldiers' memorial committee, a city-wide organization, at the new high school, Tuesday night, it was unanimously voted that the chairman, Supt. P. O. Holt, select within a few days a smaller committee of five, as the present committee of 50 is much too unwieldy for work.

Sentiment expressed at the meeting was without a dissenting voice in favor of a building as a proper memorial. Whether it should be a new one or the old high school building remodeled was not brought out.

The same spirit of patriotism and desire to do something in a memorial way for the veterans of the last war, at the same time showing gratitude to the veterans of the Civil and Spanish-American wars, was evidenced that made the first general meeting some weeks ago so enthusiastic.

Action Is Needed
"The trouble after the civil war," said Supt. P. O. Holt, "was that while the people had the same feelings in their hearts, perhaps, that we have and wanted to do something for their men, there was no concerted action to show those feelings in a permanent memorial."

"Action" is what is wanted, and that feeling was expressed by more than half the men there, at the meeting. Another point brought out was that it is up to the citizens as citizens to do this work. Members of the American Legion, G. A. R., and other patriotic organizations, and even the women of these organizations, will not ask for a memorial, and will be embarrassed if they have anything to do with it.

"Asking them to help in securing this," said Mr. Holt, "would be like the wife asking the husband to get her a present on their anniversary."

A large number of organizations were heard from through their representatives, and there was not one but what was in favor of a building and in securing the place as possible. Some of the organizations have already started funds—the Service Star Legion has $100 saved—and others will stand by any action taken by the committee.

Capt. Ralph Harmon of the tank corps spoke of the use he would like to see made of the old high school, saying that his company could use the place as an armory and the other rooms in the building could be used for clubrooms by the various organizations.

Supt. Holt will name and announce his committee within a short time, after which some definite action may be expected soon.

Plans are being made by the Rotary club to send speakers to appear before all grade school boys, Friday, to learn what lads desire to go to camp Roundtable at Underwood lake next summer. The club expects to turn over an entire meeting shortly to the boys' work committee to consider additional effort. The Rev. J. Kimball.

MILTON Glee Club in Home Concert

Milton—The Milton College Glee club, which recently returned from a week's tour through northern Illinois and Michigan, gave its annual home concert Tuesday night before a large audience of students and townspeople. Prof. L. H. Sprinker, director, who was unable to accompany the singers on their tour because of his little son's severe illness, had charge of the local concert.

A burlesque grand opera, in which most of the club members appeared, and impersonations of Sir Harry Lauder by L. Richard Sherr, burlesque soloist, were featured. Mr. Sheard sang three famous Lauder compositions, "I Think I'll Get Married in the Summer," "When I Was Twenty-one" and "Breakfast in Bed on Sunday Morning." Leading rolls in the opera were taken by Harold McKelton, Leland Hulbert and Carroll Hill. Mr. Hill, Charles Sutton and Paul Ewing took female parts.

A special number not included in the regular program was a solo by Walter Holiday, bass. In addition to his Scotch songs, Mr. Sheard sang Rudyard Kipling's famous song, "On the Road to Mandalay," accompanied by the club. Prof. Sprinker sang "The Red Man's Death Chant," with club accompaniment.

Later concerts will be given by the club in Janesville and Delavan.

MISS JANESVILLE SAYS:

Another blow has been dealt to vanity by the edict regarding the attire which young women are required to wear in the swimming tank of the new high school. The attractive wool bathing suits that cut such a dash among the beach flowers are taboo and only such suits as can be readily made hygienic are to be worn.

Sensational Charge Made by Dr. Lorenz.
ois, Michigan, Minnesota and the Dakotas was a 1,000-bed hospital. It soon became evident that it was hopeless to expect anything from the national government and we took up the situation in Wisconsin, which now has the finest hospital in the country of this kind. We have already handled over 600 and now admit on the average 20 a month.

He said the hospital at Madison when completed will have 184 beds and has now 227 cases, that even before it is finished it is inadequate. The national government has not yet provided one bed for the eighth district for a mental case," he said, declaring Wisconsin is years ahead of the federal government.

350 Vets Imprisoned.
Learning there are 22,000 ex-servicemen in penal institutions of the nation, and that under normal conditions there should be only 10,000, Dr. Lorenz said he had sympathy for the men who got in "bad" through no fault of their own. Some are merely victims of a most vicious training anyone could get. Almost 35 percent were feeble minded to begin with, most with minds under pine.

Are't Making Claims.
Stealthy boy riding was the main offense and in each case the men admit their guilt.

"Why?" asked Dr. Lorenz. "They thought they did no wrong. In the army property was anything you could get your hands on and keep."

"I have yet to recall a man who wants to establish a claim for compensation. They don't want anyone to know they are in prison. Then they are allowed only one letter every two weeks and by actual measurement it would take 22 years to establish a claim—or at least a refusal. We are now putting claims in for them."

Care Given Them.
The men are given something to do, such as poultry farming and auto mechanics. They are thoroughly examined upon entering, physically and mentally, and are treated for physical defects. The effort is to get them away from dreams and back to reality, to get them away from the desire for pink roses, each holding individual attention. They are provided with plenty of food at a cost of over a dollar for each man each day as against 17 cents a day at Mendota. They are allowed plenty of sleep.

Dr. Lorenz was given two rising ovations.

The Power city quartet sang Tuesday night and received many return calls.

Obituary.

Substitute Tax Bill Favored.
Cunningham Reports Sentiment Is Against Original Measure.

Endorsement of a substitute highway tax bill providing a triple source of revenue was given by the League of Wisconsin Municipalities and county board representatives at Madison, Tuesday. It was announced by City Attorney Roger G. Cunningham, Tuesday night, before the Chamber of Commerce legislative committee. Mr. Cunningham returned to Madison, Wednesday, for the hearing before the joint highway committee of the legislature. He was accompanied by Councilman-elect C. Starr Atwood and Oscar N. Nelson, Chamber manager.

What Bill Provides.
The substitute bill provides:
1—Two cents a gallon tax on gasoline.
2—Graduated license fee based on weight, but only half as high as original bill.
3—Two percent valuation tax on all motor vehicles to be collected when applying for license. This is in lieu of the personal property tax on cars which would be cancelled.

City Gets Revenue.
Thirty-five percent of the gasoline tax would go to the state, 15 percent to the county. Mr. Cunningham said. Of the license money on cars, the distribution would be the same, but on trucks, the local units would get 75 percent, the county, 25 percent. Seventy percent of the valuation tax money would go to the local units and 30 percent to the county. State aid would be provided for trunk highways in cities.

So much interest is apparent in the highway tax bill fight that Mr. Cunningham predicted the legislature would meet as a committee of the whole, Wednesday night, to consider both bills. The new bill would give the state practically the same revenue as predicted under the first proposal.

Keeley Leaves Chicago Hospital.
William Keeley, who for the past several weeks has been confined to Columbus hospital following injuries received when struck down by the taxi cab in Chicago, has been removed to his apartment at 602 Hotel Embassy, Pine Grove and Diversey parkway, that city. He is located near the hospital and still receives treatment there. Mrs. Keeley who was also injured has been out of the hospital for several days.

Movie Nets $200 For P-T Convention.
More than $200 will be cleared by the Janesville Parent-Teachers' association as a result of the matinee and evening showing at the high school, Tuesday night, of "All Baba and the Forty Thieves." Miss Agnes Grant, president, said Wednesday. The money will go toward the fund for entertaining the state Parent-Teachers' convention here next month and for lectures.

Edgerton.
Edgerton.—Wray Watson, 81, for many years a resident of Edgerton, died April 9 at Stoughton, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Goodwin Olson. He is survived by his wife and five children: Mrs. Harlow Knapp, Edgerton; Mrs. F. C. Risdon, Milwaukee; Mrs. Goodwin Olson, Mrs. Trace Christensen and Ben Watson, Stoughton. If I Could Make Waste-baskets—
MOST waste-baskets are anything but decorative; that is why really artistic baskets are always saleable. Baskets to match the color scheme of a room are now in vogue, and anyone who is clever with paint and brush has at hand a source of extra money.
If I could make waste-baskets; that is, weave the reed or paint them attractively, I could dispose of my output in a short time—provided I advertised.
The logical way to advertise would be with a Gazette Want Ad. I would call 2600 and start my Want Ad scouting around for me at once.

The Gasoline Tax from Many Angles.

Massachusetts has been discussing the gasoline tax which is an acute issue just now in Wisconsin and several other states. The legislature of New Hampshire asked the supreme court for an opinion on the constitutionality of the gasoline tax which that state was proposing. They have a way in New Hampshire of getting an opinion beforehand instead of waiting until after legislation is passed. The supreme court said that the state could not levy a tax and collect it from wholesalers but could collect it at the place of retail along the highways. Looking over the situation the New Hampshire legislature concluded that the cost of collection at filling stations was so great that the overhead would eat up most of the revenue. In Massachusetts the motorists at first, as they have been here in Wisconsin, were inclined to favor the tax but now there is a strong reaction and the bill is likely to be defeated. Massachusetts has a constitutional provision providing for an excise tax on wares, merchandise and commodities, and it is argued that this meets the objection of the New Hampshire court so that the supreme court decision there does not apply. There are exemptions of farm tractors, motor boats and other vehicles in the Massachusetts bill something on the order of the Wisconsin proposal. But there again is a hitch and the Wisconsin legislature might pause and investigate what Massachusetts is finding out. Can we discriminate? There, it is held that a tax must be a tax on all and no exceptions can be made and not violate the basic law.

Bootlegging in gasoline would be built up as a business and before we were well into it, the advocates of the law would have a statute as full of holes as a sieve. In support of the contention that a tax must be uniform and that exemptions, exceptions and rebates are not consonant with the constitution of Wisconsin, the first section of Article VIII is interesting. In that it says, "The rules of taxation shall be uniform and taxes shall be levied upon such property as the legislature shall prescribe. Taxes may also be imposed on incomes, privileges and occupations, which taxes may be graduated and progressive and reasonable exemptions may be provided."

Gasoline is not a "privilege," an "occupation" nor an "income" but it is property. It might be well to examine whether the gasoline tax bill does not violate the "shall be uniform" inhibition which in itself permits of no exemption.

The legislature may get around this point by its declaration that this is a "license tax." There are so many complications to arise that the administration of the law is bound to raise inequities which defeat its very purpose. While the supervisor of inspectors of illuminating oils is to be in charge of the collection of the gasoline tax, the law is very general and generous in its permission as to expenses of collection and supervision. It is left to the discretion of the secretary of state and state treasurer as to how much collection is to cost. We shall see another army of inspectors in the field. They must visit and check up every station, every man who dips gasoline from a can and sells it along the roadside or to his neighbors, and purchasers must use different containers for gasoline used to clean clothes, for the tractor, the motor boat, or other purpose than the propelling of a motor vehicle on the highways. New Hampshire saw that the expense of collection was almost equal to the amount of revenue raised, and quit. In Kansas City a gasoline tax has been imposed by city ordinance and wholesalers pay it on all gasoline used for any and all purposes. The result is a rise of the wholesale price of gasoline to the amount of the tax when sold to dealers. The tax collector has only to take gross sales in gallons and find the tax-making collection, easy and not necessitating an army on the city payroll as we have provided here in Wisconsin for the state collection from filling stations. But that cannot be done because we are making exemptions which though technically perhaps, may not be unconstitutional, are a violation of equal rights of the people.

A quarrelsome workman should be set at piece work.

Uncle Sam as Movie Producer

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Washington.—A farmer failed to observe the precautions he should have taken in caring for his cows, with the result that they developed tuberculosis and his daughter became a tubercular victim through drinking the infected milk. In real life, the chances are, the farmer would continue to maintain his germ broadcasting station until there were numerous other innocent victims of the dread disease, his daughter would die, eventually his herd would be destroyed, he would lose his farm and he would complete the tragedy in any one of the various conventional ways.

In real life, however, the farmer learns his lesson in time, cleans up his farm, adopts modern methods of sanitation, rids his animals of tuberculosis, and sends his daughter to a sanitarium, whence she returns three years later with her health fully restored, to be reunited with a happy family on a modern dairy farm.

Such is the story of the film, "Out of the Shadows," produced by the moving picture section of the Department of Agriculture. It may not be shown in all the motion picture palaces of the land, it may not "gross a cool half million," it may not feature any well known cinema star nor win the coveted laurel for some aspirant for celluloid fame, and it may not be the "greatest triumph" of some master director's career. None the less it will be widely exhibited, it will earn millions of dollars for the government, it will be the product of a group of earnest workers who believe that there is something more important than Hollywood honors and honorariums.

Also it is a thriller and tells its story so effectively that its educational value is fully realized without its having been so labeled and sub-titled. "Then there is the 'Red Enemy,'" an even more lurid drama, as its title would indicate, which depicts the terrible losses and great danger of forest fires. The "Honor of the Little Purple Stamp," follows, and tells the story of the government's fight against the pest of the nation, the "Jackass," the "Good Milk Knight," the story of which is obvious, and "Garden Golf," which may be described as a comedy showing how a confirmed golf fiend was converted into an enthusiastic gardener.

Of if you are interested in chickens—the barnyard rather than the cabaret kind—there are reels dealing with all phases of the poultry industry. Selling eggs from the rooster to select a lady, and make the business pay to the embryology of the egg. One of the most interesting of these films is a picture that shows how Uncle Sam raises chickens, depicting a visit to the Department of Agriculture poultry farm near Washington and showing brooders, pens, houses, use of trap nests and all the approved methods of handling domestic fowls of all kinds.

The lesson of the importance and value of good roads is told in various pictures that have been made to illustrate the work of the Bureau of Public Roads. All kinds of roads and every method of road construction are depicted and the pictures are so humanized as to have an almost universal appeal in these days of amazing developments in the automotive branch of the transportation industry. One of them closes with an exciting race between a railroad train and a truck on a concrete road. These films have been in especially wide demand and they are credited with having accomplished wonders in furthering the good roads movement.

For the Forest Service films have been made to show what is being done to increase and preserve the timber reserves of the United States. Reference has already been made to one that has to do with the menace of forest fires. Others treat incidentally with the measures that are taken to protect the elk, deer and other animals that are to be found on the government reservations, and still others tell the story of "See America First" by presenting the scenic wonders and beauties of the national parks.

Columns might be devoted to detailing the many subjects that are covered by Uncle Sam in the educational work he has undertaken through this film service, for they embrace almost every governmental activity that is helpful and instructive and the field is being enlarged almost daily as a result of the studies and discoveries of scientists. The division of motion pictures is not a commercial venture in the sense that it competes in any way with private enterprises of that character or that it is in the business to make money. On the contrary the government has engaged in this work solely for the benefit that may accrue to the general public.

Some idea of the extent of the work may be obtained when it is known that already almost a quarter of a million feet of film have been completed and that all the pictures are comparatively short. These negatives are all stored in vaults in the studio, which is a two-story, fire-proof structure, located on C street, near the Bureau of Printing and Engraving.

The first floor of this studio is devoted to the executive offices, the projection room, the developing, printing, finishing and editorial rooms, and the repair shop, in addition to the storage vaults. The second floor is the studio proper, so arranged and equipped as to leave nothing to be desired by the director, actor or photographer. Here most of the interiors are taken. However, from the character of the pictures produced, it is apparent that by far the greater part of them are scenes taken out of doors, or on location, as they say in the vernacular.

With Uncle Sam as the producer it may be taken for granted that what is known as the "Hollywood" method of making pictures is being followed. The picture with its message to the public is the thing. There are no temperamental actors with their jealousies and rivalries and performances off the screen that are so often more spectacular than they are edifying. There is no colony to be watched constantly to see where the lid will be blown off next. There are no press agents to exploit the stars, their publicitism, their attainments, their salaries, their personal idiosyncrasies.

Shown under the auspices of colleges, schools, community centers, churches, extension bureau, and similar organizations that have to do with educational work. In some instances regular exhibitors have asked permission to show the films in their theaters and it has been found that audiences that pay for their film diversions welcome the instructive pictures if they are entertaining at the same time.

tributions from the head of a manufacturing establishment in Milwaukee. In fact it is its own answer to any questions which it may instigate.

Asked about his reported refusal to subscribe to the Y. W. C. A. fund drive recently, Mr. Pletsch admitted that he had told the solicitors, Mrs. George Anderson, 312 Twentieth St., and Mrs. Frank W. Buchner, 8515 State St., that he sent all the money he could spare to Germany.

"I'd give you nothing," he is reported as having told the solicitors. "All that I can spare I am sending to Germany to right the wrongs done her by the United States."

"Yes, I said that," Mr. Pletsch declared, "with the addition that the Germans were promised by the 14 points that they were betrayed by Mr. Wilson."

Mr. Anderson, who is a gold star brother, asked Mr. Pletsch if he would have felt that way if he too had lost a son in the war.

"You wouldn't have lost a son in the army if I had had my way," he is said to have replied.

When Mrs. Anderson suggested to him that he should go to Germany to live, feeling as he did, Mr. Pletsch is reported to have answered that he was an American, that he belonged here, and that his business was all here. Although he spoke quietly throughout the interview, according to Mrs. Buchner, he appeared to be under a great strain, for he was pale and trembling.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST

DUALITY.
One of my selves is a slave to greed, and the other a slave to dreams.
One of them glories in brick and stone, and the other in running streams;
And part of the time I am cold and stern, seeking whatever my hand can earn.
Planning to conquer and dare and do,
Meeting resistance and driving through,
And part of the time a patch of sky
Can hold me slave while the days go by.

One of my selves is brave and bold, and the other is meek and mild.
One of them would a warrior be; the other would play the child.
One of them battles for things to hold,
Land and glory and coils of gold.
And the other will stand by the open sea,
And follow the ships where the wild blows free,
And fancy himself a sailor-lad,
Blithely singing a chancey glad.

One of my selves counts Time in gains, and the other in pleasures rare;
One of them sees but the task to do and the burdens he must bear.
The other one stands to the summer breeze
And hears its song in the swaying trees.
The sound of a brook or a lute's call,
Or a scene of beauty holds him in thrall.
And I never know who I start away
Which of the two I shall be that day.

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

By ROY K. MOULTON

THE BITTERS BIT.
A few weeks ago the faculty of a girls' school decided to give the students a test for mental alertness. That is quite the thing now whether it means anything or not. A long list of questions was prepared, and the students did not come through very well.
The student held a pen and passed a resolution requesting the privilege of asking the faculty a few questions in return to test the mental agility of the teachers. The request was granted, and as a result there will be no more tests of the kind in the school. The faculty made a worst list of it than the students and a few of the answers given by the faculty follow:
Al Johnson is a professional wrestler.
Francis Scott Key was a woman who wrote poems.
Bob McNutt is the heavyweight champion of America.
Bob McNutt is the trademark of a well known food product.
Sequins are a variety of fish.
Beatrice Fairfax is a well known movie actress.
Gallagher and Sheen run a dry line.
Grover Bergdoll was a great man.
Eliot Mignon is an opera written by Puccini.
Maraschino was premier of Russia before the war.
Brilliantine is used by actresses to make their eyes bright.
A Hungarian goulash is the ruler of a province in Hungary.
Eulimoor pastor declares there are no tears in heaven, the more heroes will have a perfectly wretched time there.

Jackie Coogan gets a half-million dollars for four pictures. That boy ought to be quite a help to his parents when he grows up.
Spring coats will be one inch longer than last year, but still not long enough to cover up last spring's trousers.
If you want to see a lot of fine spring conplexions, look in almost any drug store window.
London scientist says women are too weak for housework. We have noticed this among some of the hired girls.
They have invented a motor truck "that walks like a man." But they will have to invent one that walks like a woman if they expect to conquer the traffic cops.

Scientist claims that anger is a certain cause of indigestion. There must be a lot of dyspeptics in France and Germany just now.
France owes the United States four thousand million dollars, but to mention what it cost our people to put Deauville on the map.

Who's Who Today

ALBERT D. LASKER.
Albert D. Lasker, now chairman of the United States shipping board, is the head of the publicity in the campaign for Harding's re-election. He will retire from the shipping board within the next ninety days. His new duties, according to present indications, will be to see that the accomplishments of the Harding administration are put in shape for forceful presentation to the public in 1924.

Harding places a good deal of confidence in his shipping board chairman and the fact that Lasker in private life is a man of the head of the national advertising concern has also contributed to his being tentatively selected for the publicity work.
Lasker, whose advertising agency is located in Chicago, was named to the shipping board in June, 1921. He was asked to serve previous to that date but declined. He gave as his reason that he did not know enough about shipping affairs and did not believe himself qualified.
Lasker is a combination of business man, politician and sportsman. He is part owner of the Mitchell Car company and the Van Camps and the Chicago Baseball club. He is the author of the plan that ended the warfare between the baseball leagues in 1920, and sponsored Judge Landis as chief arbiter.

LOOKING BACKWARD

FORTY YEARS AGO
April 11, 1883.—The surveyors for the Chicago Quincy and Burlington railway were in the city today, and surveyed a line straight up River street, coming up little by little to the base of the bluff, especially as the plans for the railway could not be determined from the surveyors. It is not even assured that the line will be built.

THIRTY YEARS AGO
April 11, 1893.—There was organized in Janesville this afternoon, with many present from Rock, Green and Walworth counties, the Southern Wisconsin Districts Union of Christian Endeavor Societies.—Madame Junnauschek and Edmund Cullen played "Macbeth" at the Myers last night, the audience being small because of the extreme weather.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
April 11, 1903.—Churches are planning elaborate programs for Easter Sunday, and already a great many social events are on the calendar for next week. Many weddings are planned for the two weeks following Easter, among them being those of Miss Louise Kent to W. W. Watt, Miss Newell to John L. Fisher, Miss Helen Elford to H. Ross Kiser, Miss Catherine Smith to Edward Henry Peterson, and Miss Emma Louise Richter to Joseph Black, Eau Claire.

TEN YEARS AGO
April 11, 1913.—Those on the program for the annual rhetorical meeting at the high school tonight are Allen Dearborn, Willard Field, Russell Smiley, Stanley Judd, Olive Reynolds, Victor Beemling, Margaret Denning, Mary Cronin, Evelyn Walsh, Jessica George, Margaret O'Brien, Betty Cordell and Marion Fletcher.

REST.
This is my rest forever; here will I dwell; for I have desired it.—Psalms 132:14.

Personal Health Service

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
Noted Physician and Author

LET US SPRAY NOT OUR NEIGHBOURS
The saddest part of all the pain and suffering and loss of time and expense and physical weakness and disability and mortality caused by the respiratory infections which all ignorant people and some willful ones call "colds" is that it is mostly preventable. But unfortunately the delusion or superstition of "taking cold" is born in nearly all of us, including those who become doctors or nurses or health workers or nurses every attempt to prevent the free and unrestricted spread of these diseases, the respiratory infections are so frightfully common, being responsible for about nine-tenths of all illness, and occurring in every household or every family every year if not every season, that an organized campaign of prevention is practically out of the question; therefore the efforts of the constituted health authorities are limited to enforcing hygienic regulations in such specific respiratory infections as diphtheria, cerebro-spinal meningitis and whooping cough when cases are recognized; and to recognizing or deliberately concealing such cases explain why it is almost impossible to stamp out the disease.

There are about a dozen respiratory infections, each of which is a distinct disease, and each of which is recognized or deliberately concealed; such cases explain why it is almost impossible to stamp out the disease. There are about a dozen respiratory infections, each of which is a distinct disease, and each of which is recognized or deliberately concealed; such cases explain why it is almost impossible to stamp out the disease.

Right here is where most of the health authorities err and err grievously in their public health teaching. They enable and waver and waver enough to leave the impression that a few of these so-called "colds" are not infectious conditions at all; so you and I pick up a respiratory infection we bump up some imaginary recent exposure or wetting or draft and count ourselves the exception—our illness is not of the infectious order, hee if we are able we may keep about among folks. This is the reason public health instruction makes so little headway against the most prevalent of preventable diseases.

It is Utopian to look for any material improvement in the situation so long as the health authorities are so far from the truth in their notions of the causation of such diseases.

SPRING ARRIVES BUT IS IT ONLY FOR SHORT VISIT?

The maiden named "Spring" appeared in all her glory in Janesville Tuesday afternoon. While the city was covered with for early in the morning, it cleared about 11 o'clock with a warm breeze from the south, and plenty of sunshine. Along the river bank on South River street pussy willows were much in evidence. Thousands of little gnats filled the air, tulips and crocuses peered their heads through the earth in many flower gardens.
Not taking the "joy out of life" folks, but our old weather prophet, Alameda, predicts another snow storm about the middle of this month.

HUMANE WEEK NOT TO BE OBSERVED HERE

While the week starting next Sunday has been designated by State humane officer A. B. Frederick as humane week no observance will take place here. Through readers, which encourage a love for animals and proper care of them, in young children, this work is made thorough in the school year. Through stories about relations between children and older people, respect for elders is taught. In some cities the week will be observed in homes, in schools and special sermons in the churches.

Remarkable Letters Come to Us Daily. Here Is a Sample. Read It.

Lewis Laboratories, Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen:
Believing I owe you a testimonial, I will tell you and to the world that I consider your new gland systematic treatment the greatest remedy of modern times. I have doctored for years without any relief and when you read of my story you will understand why I am so grateful to you. I used to be an actor in the Minstrel Show business and did lots of rough and tumble work. Years ago from overexertion I lost the use of my legs and my feet gave way and a kind of paralysis set in on my left side. For years I had to drag my left leg and always wore the toes of my shoe soles off. Was numb across the small of my back, couldn't get up or down stairs. In fact I was a wreck every way. I tried everything without any help. I tried your gland treatment as a last resort. After three weeks' treatment I found I could sit down and raise my feet in the air. Before I couldn't raise my foot six inches from the floor. After five weeks the paralysis disappeared. I could walk or run as good as any man, my strength has returned and I feel like twenty-five years younger. And everybody says I look it, too. I honestly believe your gland treatment should be brought to the notice of everybody who has lost his health and pep and suffers as I did. I know it will help them for everything I have tried failed to help me, and everybody, when I have recommended to try your gland treatment, says the same. I am a Moose here, member L. O. O. M. number 17, Moose Legion No. 27, and my lodge brothers will sign their names to any statement I make.
Yours truly,
John Robert Andrews,
908 East Georgia St., Indianapolis, Ind.

Build Up Your Glands and You Build Up Your Strength and Endurance

A Special Combination Treatment for Woman

You will notice in the coupon that we ask whether the treatment is intended for male or female.

This is necessary because the two treatments are absolutely different as to formulas. The female treatment contains Lutein and is particularly recommended for the ailments to which women are most commonly subject. Any Physician will testify as to the wonderful value of Lutein for women's troubles and will also understand that this substance would be of no benefit if administered in a treatment for men. We mention this one point of difference to emphasize the fact that the Lewis Treatment for Women is especially prepared for that sex.

Here Is the Experience of One Michigan Woman

Lewis Laboratories, Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen:
Enclosed you will find money order for which please rush my next treatment, as I am nearly out of my last supply. Your treatment for the rebuilding of the glands is a most wonderful discovery, and words cannot express my gratitude to you for what the treatment has done for me.
Nine years ago I went to the hospital here to have a fibroid tumor removed, and on the operating table several other organs were also removed. Since then my life has been miserable. I suffered so much that I would have committed suicide, were it not for my two sons. I tried everything without any relief, and the agony was awful. I was advised to try your new gland treatment and I have thanked my Creator ever since. The first week I noticed a remarkable change, my head seemed clearer, my whole system felt lighter, and I improved so rapidly, I had a new ambition instilled in me to live.
I am recovering so rapidly that I don't want to interrupt the treatment, so please rush this to me. I have recommended your gland treatment to so many people. I ought to thank you for what your treatment has done.
Yours for health,
Mrs. Fanny Griggs,
1208 Burton St., Flint, Mich.

What You May Expect This Treatment to Do for You.

The Lewis Method will positively Rebuild and Replace worn and wasted gland tissue. It will increase vitality both physical and mental. It will renew strength, especially as to the functioning of the glands. It will increase your endurance and render you less liable to fatigue. It will improve your general health, and in most cases cause a marked improvement in your appearance. Your appetite will increase and you will almost surely gain in weight if you are at present in a "run-down" condition.
It is especially recommended to men for Prostatic troubles, Liver, Kidney and Bladder disorders and Rheumatism, both muscular and joint.

The instructions and suggestions that accompany the Demonstration Treatment will tell you about the Lewis Treatment in much greater detail than is possible in a general announcement.

Too Much Heavy Work Is the Cause of Many Breakdowns

Lewis Laboratories, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sirs:
I have just finished a month's treatment and must congratulate you on your wonderful discovery. It does not seem possible that you can restore strength so quickly through so simple a treatment. Being an engineer of this building have considerable responsibility, and through overwork I was completely run down. I fell from a ladder some months ago, and the shock unnerved me. A member recommended your treatment and it has certainly done wonders for me. My wife said a week ago that the change in me amazed her. The treatment put a youthful vigor in my blood, and I feel so much younger, it is unbelievable. My wife is now starting on your special treatment for women. Am talking of your treatment to all my friends and will be glad to write to anyone about this.

Gratefully yours, Mr. James Walndt,
1846 S. Harding Ave., Chicago, Ill.
